

2016 US ARMY Small Arms Championship Fact Sheet

1. GENERAL: The US Army Small Arms Championships (ALL ARMY) is a comprehensive live-fire training event that tests Soldiers ability to employ both primary and secondary weapon systems, problem solve, and think critically under the stresses created by competition. While the elements and spirit of competition are important, all Soldiers are reminded that the Army's critical intent of the competition in arms program is to develop marksmanship skills at the entry and intermediate level, recognize superior skill at the highest levels, while raising the standards of marksmanship and increasing lethality across the entire force.

- The competition will take place from 13-19 March 2016 at Fort Benning, GA on the USAMU range complex.
- Recommended travel dates are 12 MAR to guarantee arrival on 13 MAR to complete the match registration process. Return travel date will be 20 Mar to facilitate attendance at the final awards ceremony the evening of 19 MAR.
- Competitors are encouraged to bring their assigned government M-4/M-16 rifle, and M-9 pistol, although the USAMU has a limited quantity of pistols and rifles to loan. All ammunition for the training sessions and follow on competitions will be provided by the USAMU.
- Units are responsible for all travel and associated TDY costs.
- Registration for this competition closes on 26 February 2016 and late entries will not be accepted. Registration is capped at 260 entries, so early registration is encouraged.
- Teams are comprised of four (4) firing members, and one (1) alternate firing member/coach. Competitions involve events that require running, and other physical activities. Units will ensure that Soldiers selected for participation in this event are physically fit.
- The final awards ceremony for this event will be hosted by Fort Benning's DFMWR.
- To allow all MACOMs the opportunity to field teams for this competition, the below allocations are reserved until Wednesday, 17 February. Beginning Thursday, 18 February, all remaining slots that have not been filled will be given to individual Soldiers on a first come-first served basis.
